Trinity Academy Halifax
Church Attendance Supplementary Form
For admissions September 2024

Trinity Academy's Admissions policy provides for preference to be given to those children, or their families, who are regular worshippers at church and are resident in the defined priority catchment area. It is not mandatory for you to complete this supplementary form, but you should do so if you want your application to be considered using the church attendance criterion of the academy's Admissions policy. Please read the Admissions policy carefully so that you may understand how the oversubscription criteria will work.
